

Call for Submissions:

37th Meeting of the European Group of Process Tracing Studies

We are excited to open the submission period for the 37th Meeting of the European Group of Process Tracing Studies in Judgement and Decision Making. The conference will take place from the 4th to the 6th of July at Aarhus University in Aarhus, Denmark.

The EGPROC conference brings together researchers interested in process tracing methods and theory. This annual gathering allows for discussion of research development and current methods in the area of process tracing in a focused and interactive setting. This year, the conference will feature Dr. Eran Eldar, University College London as our keynote speaker as well as a virtual reality and eye tracking workshop led by Dr. Thies Pfeiffer of Bielefeld University, Dr. Martin Meissner of the University of Southern Denmark and Dr. Jella Pfeiffer of the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology on the first day of the conference.

Submissions are open from now until 1 May and can be made for 25 minute presentations (including discussion) or alternatively for poster presentations. Please submit abstracts up to 500 words by emailing egproc2018@au.dk. Remember to indicate submission type (presentation or poster). Contributions are selected by the organising committee, including Martin Bagger and Jacob Orquin, Aarhus University, and Sonja Perkovic, University of Leeds. For any further questions please contact us via egproc2018@au.dk.
